History

Birthplace: Taol-Kaer - Dukedom of Tulg - Urbain

Social class: Nobility

Setbacks: Illness - Poverty

Born the third son of Galain Mac Aodhan, Rael spent his childhood in relative prosperity. A bout of measles left him a frail child, but with fortune's favor, he eventually outgrew his weakness, for the most part, in time to begin his term as a squire. After attaining his knighthood, Rael continued in the service of his father. Only years after, while Rael traveled to the Dukedom of Tulg, a plot led to the downfall of his family. Planted with false evidence, the Mac Aodhans were framed for treason, supposedly plotting an act of insurgence against the royal family with nobles from Tuaille. He returned to his family's incarceration and bore witness to their public execution for all the denizens of Ard-Monach to see. With no other place to turn to, Rael consulted a longtime friend of his family, Lord Braic(...)
