History

Birthplace: Gwidre - Forest of Whispers - Rural

Social class: Peasant

Setbacks: Illness

Although her people called themselves nomads at a time, circumstances brought her family to a peasant's lot in demense of some lord whose name Runa can't even remember anymore. Although originally born to a life with little aspirations, having both parents tied by fatal contract to the land they toiled upon, it changed when a sickness caught her at the age of twelve, just coming into her womanhood. It seemed almost that she'd become one of the numerous nameless victims of the sicknesses that plagued the lands of the poor while nobility sat comfortable in their castles, she survived. Not without scars, mind you. Fourteen at the time the sickness finally passed from her bones, just the right age for a rebellious mind. Her dance with death, a dance where she almost fell into the cold embrace of(...)

Highlights : In essence, she is an escaped serf. However, her lord would have little reason to worry about her as she was more than useless in the village. Her family is unlikely to miss her, as her dance with death already had them mourn for her, and her survival did not exactly bring back their innocent little girl. The knights however. She robbed them, humiliated them and fooled them. They have more reason to hunt her down, seeing she often sings of their unfortunate evening. In essence, all Runa wants is for her name to be remembered forever.
