Birthplace: Taol-Kaer - Dukedom of Tulg - Rural Social class: Craftsman Setbacks: Adversary

Amadis Fouquet hails from a family of pig farmers and leather workers. As a youth he was troubled with lucid dreams that confused and scared him. The local Demorthen determined they were signs of portent and claimed the youth was gifted and should seek apprenticeship outside of the community since he had taken on a new apprentice the year before, a family member by the name of Perion. Travel from the close knit community was virtually unheard of and Amadis was crestfallen. Over the next summer and fall, Amadis withdrew into himself while he struggled with the idea of leaving his home and taking up a profession under a stranger or taking up the family trade. His fears, however, were solved when Perion was implicated in the theft of a broach that was owned by the(...)
