Highlights : Ruaud has a captivating nature of strength and vigor, as well as his successes in hunting, are revered by the locals and on many occasions people will count on his good nature in times of need. Ruaud is fond of stories of King Hild of Taol-Kaer, the inspiration of the founding of the Hilderins, and of his passion and prowess for the hunt prior to his ascension to the throne. However, the rigid militaristic hierarchy and lifestyle of a Hilderin isn't one he desires to abide by nor does he wish to be some martyr killed by Feondas.
