History

Birthplace: Taol-Kaer - Dukedom of Tuaille - Rural

Social class: Peasant

Setbacks: Wound - Violence

Liliana Harth was born in the remote hamlet of Durnhollow, a fog-choked village on the edge of the Taol-Kaer forests. Her mother, Elira was a herbalist known for her knowledge of both healing and darker, whispered things. Liliana's father was a wanderer - a Varigal who vanished into the mist one winter and never returned. His fate was a shadow that hung over her childhood, and whispers of Feond influence were murmured among the villagers. From a young age, Liliana showed signs of sensitivity to the Otherworldly. She would wake in the dead of night, speaking in tongues not her own, her eyes glazed and distant. Her mother recognized the signs and began to teach her the Old Ways - not the Demorthèn arts, but something older, something unspoken. Herbs, sigils, and whispered incantations(...)

Highlights : Liliana was born during the Harvest Moon under thick, creeping fog that settled over her village, Durnhollow. The midwife who delivered her claimed that the mist whispered her name before she even took her first breath. Her mother Elira, a known herbalist and practitioner of the old ways, believed her daughter was marked by the Oneiric Pathways - those hidden trails that connect the waking world with the unseen.
