You grew up in the city and were raised to help those less fortunate then yourself. When you got the chance to join the Hilderin Knights you took it and didn't look back. There you met a man named Bowyn, you became great friends. You fought many Feonds with him till one unfortunate day he was struck down. As he laid in your arms dying he made you promise to tell his family of his fate an not to grieve for him. You were given leave by your captain to deliver his sword and shield as well as a letter from the Captain.
