Bruadar was forcibly conscripted into the dukes army at an early age, and although he witnessed the horrors of war his company always seemed to guard the baggage or transport prisoners. He decided that since he had not needed to draw blood in all those years, he would continue down that path. So on returning to find his village, desolate and only a few souls still tilling the soil, his parents and childhood sweetheart having been murdered by the roving armies or died of fever or starvation, he decided to seek out a seek out a better life...
