Westleigh was born the fifth child of an eventual six to Lord Bearnard and Lady Liosa of House Barrach, a minor house whose most distinguishing characteristic was that it was one of the first adherents to the faith of Soustraine (and even then, not THE first). Growing up being constantly compared to his elder brothers (of which he has 3), Westleigh was a wild and rambunctious child in his youth. This was probably what prompted his parents to send him to the temple in the first place. The tradition of sending a son to train had to be upheld, and it may as well be the one who could benefit from it the most, and so the boy was sent to study with his uncle, Malachai. Out of the shadows from his brothers, Westleigh showed an aptitude for learning and quickly devoured any and all books that came his(...)
