Ceffyl is a man who has made a career around being in the right place, saying the right thing to the right person at the right time. He was nothing until a fateful day at Osta-Baille, when he went to sell a horse. He was standing by an up-and-up inn, trying to eye up someone who was tired of walking on 2 feet, when a noble walked by and dropped the reigns of a fine cairnid into Ceffyl's hand, and without a word, strode in. Ceffyl was awestruck by the gift, for it was a beautiful beast (Him having grown up around the creatures, and having a knack for spotting good breeding). He didn't want to seem ungrateful by hanging around for more handouts, so he wandered the city some more, now with 2 mares. By noon he had been gifted two more, by likewise standoffish, silent nobles, at two separate(...)
