Saphrax was born in a small village in a narrow and densely forested valley. He still lives there, alone, save for a handful of childhood comrades. His father was killed on a trapping expedition and his mother died a few years later due to disease. One by one his siblings perished in accidents or were killed by wild animals or bandits. Saphrax has taken the lessons of his loss to heart and was able to survive his meeting with fate. Faits marquants : Saphrax is average height and lean. Short, dark hair juts out from beneath his hunting cap, outlining a weathered face and glaring eyes. A leather jerkin and faded green tunic are fitted tight with leather thongs. A fair number of stitched scars cover the hide he wears as well as his own, eluding to a combative profession. He carries a bow slung over his shoulder and a sharp francisca on his belt.
