Cherised and loved by his parents. He passed on the love to his little brother but only recieved envy back. It did not matter, he would always care for little Eb. He would cry for months after they sent Eb off to The Faith, but he found resolve in tending to the farm. Now, 6 years later, he has inherited his fathers duty and runs the most bountiful farm in the western part of The Abundance. He is married to the most beautiful woman in western Gwidre and has 11 children. 4 sets of twin-boys and one set of triplet-girls. He loves them all equally and when he is not farming he plays with them and carries them all around on his massive frame. If only his brother would return from his important duties with the temple... Bobert would throw the most wonderful welcome feast ever seen among the farmers(...)
