A traveler, a nomadic Tarish woman she is one of mystery and nightmarish thoughts. A zealot of the One True God she believes his Word speaks to her directly. Using the power of dreams she knows she is close to answers of a realm beyond our own. Strange, eccentric, one prone to visual hallucinations she seems more of a hinderance than she is helpful. Brécaira has left her family as they were not believers of her word. God's word. Her father was a man of science and taught her all that he could until she surpassed the master. She is carried city to city to absorb whatever knowledge that she can about the metaphysical world. Brécaira is not a woman of good conscious, spreading the word any which way she can. A esoteric hedonist she seeks wordly pleasure along with the answers to(...)
