Cassamir was born in the Dukedom of Gorm. His birth claimed the life of his mother, Vesna, something his father, Milos, never forgave him for. Cass also looked a great deal like his mother - the same hawk-nose, the same pale silver-blue eyes - which lead Milos to hurt Cassamir time and time again. Cassamir found comradery and solance with the people that worked as prostitutes at his father's brothel. One night, Milos drank far too much and in a sorrow-filled rage he dragged his screaming child into the night and into a nearby shed, which he then set on fire with Cassamir still inside. The fire almost took Cassamir's life. It did destroy much of his tissue and two his fingers. It was the work of something unatural, it was thought, the Cass survived the ordeal. After waking up from the resulting coma,(...)

Faits marquants : Was the cause of his mother's death. Was, as a result, hated by his father. The father tried to slay him in a fire. The fire changed him, scarred him, took two of his fingers. Has been traveling ever since, haunted as he is.
